ATAMAN pizzeria in the corner of Jurij Gagarin and Omladinskih brigade streets in block 70 was opened in 2003.

As many other things in Serbia, it was born out of: 1. spite – firstly against ourselves and then to prove others that a long nurtured wish can become truth, the experience can change and the knowledge can be used; 2. Love – because nothing is right without love; 3. out of passion to be unique and recognizable

Our select professionals affirm their reasons for existing with us. Everyone know what to do and how to do it, because they are doing what they love.

There are situations in life when compromise is possible and preferable. For us at ATAMAN we don't compromise with hunger, we understand it.

To give flavor without compromise, to please the hunger, rather than to satisfy it is our trademark feature.

In all our years nothing has changed in terms of excellent quality of the ingredients we select. We are dedicated to the principle: CLEAN, HEALTHY, DELICIOUS, STABLE, RECOGNIZABLE. Nothing has changed in our methods of preparation involving fusion of flavors. We only kept expanding our already excellent offer with new and seasonal flavors of modern times while still respecting tradition. We will continue to do so in the future.

For years we have worked and fed you, our customers grew up from school kids to highschoolers, then students, then active members from all parts of society, they began new lives. It is our biggest joy when they take a moment from their busy lives to drop by us and have 'their usual' sandwich or pizza or goulash or crepe...

Every empty plate left behind is the reason for our existence. Many came before us, many came after us but we are still with you! We became and will remain the brand in the corner. You know where to please your hunger in the healthy but also special way. We are here for you and we will come when called.
